> As the first hotel in Colombo to usher in the festive season, Hilton Colombo marked the occasion with festive performances, familiar Christmas traditions, and the grand unveiling of its Christmas centerpiece, an intricate golden carousel, at the heart of its lobby.

Framed by elegant white-and-gold decorations and charming Nutcrackers, the carousel transforms the lobby into a haven that brings a sense of wonder to guests of all ages. Known for introducing a distinctive Christmas setting each year, Hilton Colombo continues that tradition with a celebration inspired by the warmth of coming home, shared moments, and the magic of the season.
