Unveiling a collection that embraces the quintessence of the CJS legacy, Colombo Jewellery Stores celebrated 95 years of timeless glamour showcasing the raison d'être that is its artistry and creativity. Reliving the timeless beauty and grace of eras past and intertwining those with an avant-garde twist, the sparkle of diamonds took the spotlight in all its magnificence, while lustrous rubies, radiant emeralds and resplendent blue sapphires enfolded each design with a powerful femininity. Each pair of earrings, bracelet, ring, cuff or necklace was a bold statement.

Appreciating the custom of the discerning clientele who have remained loyal to CJS through its journey, Akram Cassim, Chairman of CJS hosted a event at the CJS flagship store. While showcasing the breathtaking 95 designs created specifically for this anniversary, the spotlight fell on three diamond sets that were modelled during the evening; a leaf design invisible setting diamond collection in white gold holding a 530 marquise and princess cut diamond weighing 21 carats, a red ruby and diamond necklace with 44 rubies and 20 carats of diamonds in a matching set of earrings. Upholding the CJS legend for classic style in a V Shape is a diamond necklace with its 200 marquise, pear and round diamonds weighing 20 carats, marquise and round diamond ear studs and bracelet enfolding 12 carat diamonds, set in white gold.
