“In every era, there arises a majestic icon symbolic of strength, prestige and fame. A very few of these icons endure the tests of time, to attain an eternal place in the world’s eye. The majestic Tusker is one such icon. Similarly, with Caroline Jurie being crowned as Mrs World 2020, emerges another international icon from Sri Lanka”, said Anura Hemachandra, Managing Director, Vogue Jewellers. While he added, “Just as Rosy Senanayake brought much fame to Sri Lanka when she was crowned Mrs World back in 1984. Vogue Jewellers, as the most internationally recognized jeweler in Sri Lanka is delighted to pay a golden tribute to these queens of beauty and talent who have out-shined not only in our motherland but across the world too. Vogue Jewellers has been in the forefront of quality from its very inception, which has given it its reputation for creating the finest pieces in the country. We have relentlessly focused on highest quality standards. Encouraging and recognizing excellence has been a tradition at Vogue,” stated

The Empress Necklace gifted to Mrs World 2020, Caroline Jurie is a regal embellishment meticulously hand- crafted in 22 karat gold with purest orange Agate and pure brilliance SWAROVSKY Cubic Zirconia. The 22 karat gold and the pure Agate Vogue Tusker Golden Truffle Chain that was gifted to Rosy Senanayake is an imperial classic that interlaces Sri Lankan heritage with modern sophistication.

Vogue Jewellers has felicitated several famed shining stars including former Miss World, Aishwarya Rai with a 22Kt gold necklace with a large Amethyst, a 18Kt gold Ruby-studded Cricket Ball to renowned cricketer Muttiah Muralitharan, wedding jewelery to Sri Lanka's legendary sprint athlete and Olympic Silver Medalist, Susanthika Jayasinghe, and an exclusive gold medal with 'Sa' logo to veteran musician Dr Victor Ratnayake at his last 'Sa' concert.
