

Aitken Spence Hotels bags Gold at Annual Report Awards

Posted on

The Aitken Spence Hotels Team at the awards ceremony

Aitken Spence Hotel Holdings won the Gold Award in the Hospitality Sector category at the Annual Report Awards conducted by the Institute of Chartered Accountants. The Chief Guest at this event was Ajith Nivard Cabraal, Governor of the Central Bank.

The annual competition, formulated to encourage transparency and accountability in financial reporting in the corporate sector, recognises companies which have demonstrated excellence in transparency, accountability and good governance via their annual reports. The competition covers 22 sectors from small business categories such as NGOs, clubs, associations to large conglomerates.

This win highlights the importance Aitken Spence Hotels gives to sustainability, transparency and accountability and provides a clear indication of the company's commitment to report on its economic, social and environmental impacts. "This commendation reflects Aitken Spence Hotels' track record of commitment to corporate accountability and corporate responsibility," said Malin Hapugoda, Managing Director – Aitken Spence Hotels.

