Aitken Spence Hotels leads in Sustainability Reporting

Posted on

Tilak Gunawardana, Vice President, Finance accepting the award

Aitken Spence Hotels were recognised at the ACCA Sustainability Reporting Awards, where it emerged victorious in the Leisure and Services sector. The award highlights the importance Aitken Spence Hotels gives to sustainability, transparency and accountability while providing a clear indication of the company’s commitment to report its economic, social and environmental impacts.

“Our goal is to incorporate the values and principles of sustainable development into our business. Being repeatedly recognised by ACCA for best in sustainability reporting is an affirmation that we are on the correct path towards sustainability. We believe that sustainability is the only way forward in the tourism industry, we need to be able to protect the natural attractions, resources and culture that differentiates Sri Lanka as a unique destination,” said Malin Hapugoda, Managing Director – Aitken Spence Hotels.