

Aitken Spence Tops Sustainability Reporting Awards

L to R - Nisreen Rehmanjee, President - ACCA Sri Lanka, Tilak Gunawardana, Assistance Vice President Finance - Aitken Spence Hotels, Diarietou Gaye, Country Director for Sri Lanka and the Maldives - The World Bank and Lucia Real-Martin, Director for Emerging Markets - Asia, ACCA

Aitken Spence Hotels was adjudged the winner in the Medium Scale Category for the second consecutive year at the ACCA Sustainability Reporting Awards.

The grand award ceremony was held under the aegis of Chief Guest, Diarietou Gaye, Country Director for Sri Lanka and Maldives - The World Bank, while the Guest of Honour was Lucia Real-Martin, ACCA Director - Emerging Markets, Asia.

“We are delighted to have been adjudged the winner once again. This commendation reflects Aitken Spence Hotels’ track record of commitment to corporate accountability and championing sustainable tourism by producing industry best practices,” said Malin Hapugoda, Managing Director - Aitken Spence Hotels.