

Amanté unmasks enticing masquerade of exquisite lace

amanté has enfolded the delicate contours of exquisite lace in an enticing masquerade with its Autumn/Winter 2014 collection 'Lace Masquerade'.

The collection unleashes a parade of colours in perfect lace, with intricate detail and alluring contrasts. The collection comprises Sheer Luxury, Entice, Lace Fantasy and Lace Flirt, enabling women to discover different facets of their personality.

'Lace Masquerade' has been designed to reflect the international colour palate for Autumn/Winter 2014, where lace takes centre stage as an in-vogue fabric. Luxurious and cutting-edge fabrics with sleek lines and sensuous contours are the starting point for on-trend amanté collections, which are products of extensive research that offer versatility to the wearer.

Gayani Gunawardena, Manager, Range Management and Communications said "The exciting 'Lace Masquerade' collection embodies amanté's promise of always empowering women to be whoever they choose to be. This stunning collection offers choices in colour as well as silhouettes allowing the wearer to select in keeping with her taste and desire. As with all amanté designs, this collection is an infusion of glamour, confidence and sensuality."

The new collection will be available at the flagship boutique at the Racecourse Mall as well other retailers.
