Amaya Lake in Dambulla awarded Best Four Star Hotel in Sri Lanka

Posted on

Srijith Gooneratne, General Manager receives the award and certificate from Chief Guest, Laxman Yapa Abeywardena, Deputy Minister of Economic Development, Chandra Mohotti, Chairman – Sri Lanka Institute of Tourism and Hotel Management is also in the picture

The Amaya Lake Resort Dambulla has won the award for Best Four Star Hotel at the annual Sri Lanka Tourism Awards 2011. The accolade was presented by the Chief Guest Laxman Yapa Abeywardena, Deputy Minister of Economic Development.Currently in its fifth consecutive year, the Sri Lanka Tourism Awards pays tribute to organisations and individuals for their excellence and inspired achievements whilst contributing towards the strengthening and empowering of Sri Lanka’s tourism industry.

“We’re extremely honoured to have won the Best Four Star Hotel award,” said Lalin

Samarawickrama. Managing Director – Amaya adding that, “at a time where the industry is growing rapidly, we continue to create more value in our chain of hotel and resorts. Amaya Lake is a showpiece resort that captures the essence of Sri Lankan design, culture and tradition and is an appropriate reflection of Sri Lanka’s unique and matchless travel experience.”