

Aminra Presents A New Collection Of Jewellery

Posted on

With the wedding season in focus Aminra jewellers have introduced a brand new collection of bridal and wedding jewellery. The new collection features a vast collection of jewellery based on various design concepts that complement the latest fashions in clothing. Designers at Aminra are ready to tailor-make any design the clients require at their own workshop. Precious and semi-precious stones including emeralds and sapphires are used to embellish Aminra creations. Speaking about the new collection Deshamanya, Deshabandu (Dr) Anura Eliyapura said, "in line with our slogan 'expert creators of fine gold jewellery in keeping with international standards' we have created the new collection by incorporating a futuristic concept to it." Clients can benefit from leasing and credit card payment services offered by Aminra as well as the lifetime loyalty discount of 12.5 percent.
