The renowned ampm Restaurant has now opened up its doors for the seafood lovers in central Colombo with its brand new outlet located at 4 Deal Place in Colpetty. Serving authentic Chinese food specially prepared by Chinese chefs the ampm was initially established in Nawala, two years to date and specialises in seafood cuisine.

A family restaurant, the Colpetty branch of ampm is furnished with a fully air-conditioned large dining area holding up to 80 guests, three VIP rooms with a capacity of 12 guests each, a garden area and spacious parking for the discerning customer. Famed for its succulent seafood preparations, the Nawala outlet already pays claim to the patronage of a wide base of clientele and many a local celebrity and expectations remain equally high for the new outlet.

The Restaurant is very particular on staff service levels and customer experience. “How ever good the food maybe, it is essential for the service to be on par, to keep the customer happy,” says Shantha Jayalath, Branch Manager expressing his views on the importance they give to well-trained staff and satisfied customers.

Inviting the public to experience mouthwatering flavours of seafood at the brand new branch in Colpetty, ampm promises a sensational family dining atmosphere and experience.
