Beverly Street, a name that resonates with fashion for over 18 years has relocated from R A Del Mawatha to Galle Road, Bambalapitiya. In keeping with their theme 'Bamba Just Got Trendier', the new store invites customers to an all-encompassing lifestyle shopping experience. Beverly Street spans 20,000 square feet of Sri Lankan and international clothing brands. It also features a foot spa, nail studio and an express bakery. The store was opened by Chief Guest, Namal Rajapaksa, Member of Parliament and Rohitha Abeygunawardena, Parliamentarian.

Upon entering, you will find an exciting selection of shoes, bags, jewelry, watches, cosmetics, beauty products, homeware and perfumery. At 'Polished,' you can treat yourself to a manicure, pedicure, foot scrub, gel treatments and acrylic nail art. You can unwind at Zenergy with a relaxing foot, neck or shoulder massage. Beverly Bakery is ideal for a quick snack to refuel while shopping. It offers a build-your-own sandwich bar, along with juices, pastries, ice creams, coffee and tea. The children's department displays toys, books and school accessories that will surely delight young ones. Parents can find a vast collection of colorful clothes for their little ones, ranging from t-shirts, trousers, nightwear and footwear.

The first floor is dedicated to ladies' clothing, with bright colors and beautiful patterns drawing attention. A variety of chic designs by Beverly Street's affiliated brand Ayana are displayed here. The sub-brands, Ayana Spirited, Ayana Batik and Tie Die, Ayana Work and Play, Ayana Linen, Ayana Curve and Ayana Minimum, offer a range of clothes. A designated space for brands such as Jezza, Hayathi, Royal N Regal and Zigma Jones are featured on a split level.

For gents, the second floor showcases an extensive selection of casual wear, ties, wallets, office wear and footwear. Brands such as Emerald, Ebony, Anationz and Mosh are brought together to offer the best for gentlemen. Beverly Street's menswear brand - Coco Club emphasizes on comfort, offering their discerning clientele linen shirts, cotton trousers and stylish professional wear.

On the same floor, down a charming aisle, the home-ware section offers home décor crafted by Sri Lankan artisans. Beverly Street fully supports Sri Lankan craftsmen to promote their products in commercial areas.

The second outlet of Café Beverly will be launched on the third floor of the building. An enticing menu of Indian and Thai cuisine as well as pastas, burgers, wraps and healthy juices will leave you wanting for more.

Beverly Street's new Department Store concept provides a holistic shopping experience where you can enjoy retail therapy and indulge in some self-pampering.
