A Night of Rhythm, Energy and Unforgettable Music

Get ready to embrace the electric artistry of some of Sri Lanka’s finest entertainers in an unforgettable evening of music and fun, specially curated for young people and families alike.

The band NEWS led by Sarith and Surith – a blend of fresh energy with creative artistry.

Words Jennifer Paldano Goonewardane.

Mark your calendars for Friday, September 12, 2025, as Bhavathantha takes over the air-conditioned marquee at Cinnamon Lakeside from 7pm onwards. Presented by 3K Entertainment, led by Aloka Pallewela and Gihan Kulatunge, this will be no ordinary concert—a vibrant, interactive musical journey where the audience becomes part of the show.

Sri Lanka’s finest young pop artists will bring their signature beats, stunning vocals, and infectious energy to the stage for one electrifying evening. This is a night where music meets movement, and guests will find it impossible to stay seated for long. With VIP tickets at 8,500 and Gold at 7,500 rupees—with the comfort of seating—you can ease into the music before the irresistible rhythms have you on your feet.

The evening’s promising line-up is undoubtedly the icing on the cake. Sri Lanka’s iconic pop duo Bathiya and Santhush need no introduction, blending Sinhala, Tamil, Hindi, and English into seamless, high-energy performances that ignite the crowd. Known for their playful lyrics, rap flow, and urban beats, Wasthi brings a street-smart, party-ready vibe that connects instantly with fans. Dinesh is a smooth vocalist with a knack for heartfelt ballads and lively pop tracks, bringing emotion and groove to the stage. With his contemporary pop style and velvety voice, Kaizer delivers catchy hooks that keep audiences singing along. A rising star with a bold, dynamic voice, Hana infuses her performances with passion and a touch of drama, captivating every listener. Known for her powerhouse vocals and stage charisma, Kanchana blends modern hits with soulful delivery.

The band NEWS is fronted by twins Sarith and Surith, who first captivated the nation as teenagers with their spellbinding performances on a popular musical reality show. Since their win, they’ve been on an unstoppable journey, making waves as one of Sri Lanka’s most thrilling and bold ensembles. Specializing in upbeat dance music and genre-bending performances, they turn every show into a high-energy party. As the band backing the artists, their youthful energy will undoubtedly reverberate through the venue.

Bhavathantha is a show for the ages because the evening’s line-up of artists is singers redefining the island’s musical heartbeat. With fearless creativity, they infuse fresh twists, bold remixes, and genre-crossing experiments into their performances, reading the pulse of an audience that craves connection, elevation, and pure, uninhibited fun. They understand that today’s listeners want more than music—to be part of the show, sing along, dance, and release their energy in a shared celebration. Tapping into this desire, the organizers of this show are promising to deliver vibrant, interactive performances that will transform the evening into collective experiences.

Guests can enjoy the beats while tasting an array of food and beverages—or make the most of the BYOB privilege to keep the spirits high.

From the opening note to the final encore, Bhavathantha promises to be more than a concert—it will be a celebration of music, movement, and togetherness. So gather your friends, dress to dance, and prepare for a Friday night when you can truly throw your cares away.
