

Blackout Restaurant and Café opens its doors

Hashini and Roshan Hettiarachchi with Hemanga and Patalee Karunasena at the opening of BLACKOUT Restaurant and Café.

BLACKOUT Restaurant and Café opened its doors in Ward Place, Colombo 7, for diners to patronize in a sporty ambience with good food and beverages. The restaurant and café is managed by husband and wife duos Roshan & Hashini Hettiarachchi, and Hemanga & Patalee Karunasena. Rugby legend Chandrیشان Perera, former Sri Lankan Cricketer Aravinda De Silva and Anushka De Silva and Dilroy Fernando were also present at the opening of BLACKOUT Restaurant and Café.

The restaurant and café celebrates the world of Rugby with its theme and guests are served with standard favorites and featured dishes.

The drinks and beverages section at BLACKOUT Restaurant and Café offers a range of artisanal roaster coffee, tea, soups, fresh fruit juices and smoothies.

Blackout Restaurant and Café opens its doors

BLACKOUT Restaurant and Café has a rugby-themed atmosphere.

The BLACKOUT Restaurant and Café screens international rugby, local club and school rugby, while other sports will also be screened on special occasions, where diners can relax amongst the chic and sporty vibe while enjoying a delectable meal.