

Words | Dinali Sugathadasa Photographs Prabhath Chathuranga | Menaka Aravinda

Born of the setting sun, the Hibiscus comes abloom in hues of white, yellow, orange, red, pink, purple and a variety of intermingled dusky shades. A spritely ornament embellishing our yards all day long, she goes back to slumber by nightfall looking forward to awaken for her admirers another day.

See More