Business Events At Heritance Ahungalla: Experience The Best

Posted on

A conference room at Heritance Ahungalla

When it comes to successful business events, whether it is a board meeting for ten, a conference for hundreds, or a company day outing, Heritance Ahungalla helps plan important functions with ease by offering unmatched attention to detail, unrivalled facilities and service as well as luxurious accommodation.

In order to accommodate larger meetings and social events, the experienced conference management team can arrange for a grand marquee to be set up on the beach. With the azure ocean and the rosy-hued sky as a back drop, the marquee is the perfect location to host a sunset cocktail or an evening banquet. The award wining culinary team offer personal preference menus and delicious catering for both onsite and offsite events.