Cantaloupe Boutique launches Cantaloupe Man, a hand picked line of high end clothing and accessories for men. All products are genuine and Cantaloupe Man employs a zero stock lot policy. Initially the collection will consist of a line of work shirts from prestigious British brands such as T M Lewin, Hawes & Curtis and will also feature brands such as Diesel and Quicksilver. All items will be procured in limited numbers and most clothing will be one off. Cantaloupe Man will eventually venture into loafers, tailored shorts, trousers and other accessories.

A unique membership scheme will allow members to order items of clothing, be the first to be informed of new arrivals and be entitled to special pricing.
