

Catering for the Festive season from Harpo's Restaurant and Cafes

Posted on

With the season fast approaching The Bayleaf, Park Street Mews and The Commons are now geared to offer an exceptional choice of menus to fit the preference and the budget of consumers.

Catering during the Festive season can be a daunting task. Whether it's a cocktail, corporate festive event or an elegantly served reception or dinner, we can do it all. The Choice of menus are available on the website from November 1, 2013.

The menus can be customized for special occasions to meet one's needs. Using fresh ingredients, with novel presentations and friendly service, offering a tradition of hospitality which is evident in all what is presented.

The choice of Outdoor Catering menus incorporates Traditional Festive fare, Asian, Far eastern, International, Italian and BBQ theme menus to cater to any event planned for the season.
