

Chamathka: From Head to Toe

Sparkling bracelets

It's only plain to see, silver and gold dressed in arrays of jewels to a heart's content, beaming from within their glass casings. Only at Chamathka will one feel the endless allure of radiant stars in timeless colour.

Precious sapphire on your finger, amethyst embellishing your neck, a ruby to match the colour on your lips, drops of chrysoberyl dancing on your ear lobes, speckles of garnet, cat's eye, topaz, citrine and more adorning your wrist... and you, feeling like a million bucks, is priceless!

Necklaces, rings, earrings, pendants, brooches, bracelets and bangles and all round jewellery sets, in silver and gold designed with precious and semi precious stones, glisten irresistibly as you pass. At Chamathka, this is a fact! From designs bearing its own brand name to, made-to-order jewellery, Chamathka does it all, with an unbeatable after sales service that follows. “The main advantage with us is that we are professionals in the jewellery industry. Our after sales service is very effective, we give a lifetime of service for our jewellery,” says Chrisanthus Angelo, Managing Director who has 25 years experience in the industry. Customers of Chamathka can visit any of the branches of convenience to them, to have their jewellery serviced and returned within just a few days, “and it’s all free of charge.”

Chamathka... The Name It self Defines Exquisiteness And Unparalleled Beauty

Being in the jewellery business for over two decades, it wasn’t a far-fetched idea when Angelo decided he wanted to start his own take in jewellery production. “It began initially with us being in the export market for a few regions in Europe,” he adds. With 20 Island wide showrooms, he commends, “we’ve been selected to promote the international brand, Fior-Drissage in most of our branches because of the resilience maintained within our branch network.”

Chamathka keeps their jewellery collections always updated with new trends by changing their styles every three months, according to Angelo, and this time around, is to open up shop with an all new concept; high end evening wear; clothing and accessories, alongside their readymade jewellery shops, to set the mood.

Chamathka... the name itself defines exquisiteness and unparalleled beauty, and true to its meaning, regional showrooms festooned with some of the trendiest wear in fusion, silver, gold and gem jewellery awaits, to take yet another breath away.
