

Chapter One Restaurant holds Jazz every Sunday

Jazz lovers can listen to their favourites while enjoying great food

Chapter One Restaurant has taken a decisive step in introducing a novel concept to the Colombo dining scene. Jazz Club will be taking place every Sunday from 7.00pm, featuring a weekly lineup including Revel Crake, Ray Gomez and Jerome Speldewinde, all known for their exceptional talent.

Chapter One a fine dining restaurant that caters to jazz lovers, allowing them to enjoy a splendid dinner with spectacular views of the Diyawanna Lake while relishing some of the best jazz music Colombo has to offer.

Chapter One also hosted its very own celebration of International Jazz Day, a United Nations event designed to commemorate the importance of jazz and blues music in community and identity building.

The restaurant's Jazz Club is intended for diners who are already jazz fans and those new to the genre, providing a relaxed night out with excellent food in an amicable atmosphere. Chapter One encourages early reservations to avoid disappointment.
