

Sharmila Gunasekera, Proprietor of Manzari with her family at the opening

Manzari, a one-of-a-kind shop for women's dresses and accessories was opened at K-Zone Ja-Ela for the trendy and stylish women who wear their attitude.

The ivory and gold themed opening ceremony was graced by family and friends who made the event full of warmth. Vibrant collections at Manzari are suitable for any occasion, whether it be a family function, weddings, office get-togethers or night parties.

Sharmila Gunasekera, Proprietor - Manzari, during the occasion stated that her first sole venture dream came true with the support of her husband Mittha Gunasekera, Proprietor - EMCEE Kiddies Store and Director/Chairman - EMCEE Travels.

Manzari offers the choicest dresses, tops, handbags, shoes, clutches, jewellery items and much more a woman looks for to uplift her outlook with latest imported, trendy designs from Thailand, China and India. Further you can find high quality local items all reasonably priced. Having a future business plan of expanding Manzari in the Colombo City by next year, Sharmila reaffirmed her hope that her new venture will successfully meet the current market needs.

The choicest accessories at Manzari

Manzari at K-Zone Ja-Ela