Cinnamon Grand enters the hall of fame

Posted on

Cinnamon Grand Colombo won the award for the Best Five Star City Hotel for the third consecutive year at the Presidential Awards for Travel and Tourism 2009. This momentous accomplishment also brought the hotel the highly coveted Hall of Fame Award, an award reserved for organisations that have won a Presidential Award for three consecutive years.While General Manager, Rohan Karr of Cinnamon Grand dedicated the awards to the hotel’s multi talented team of associates who’s efforts have made this all possible, he also added, “These awards prove that the Cinnamon Grand has made an indelible mark in the annals of Sri Lankan tourism. While we celebrate these awards today, we are already looking towards tomorrow, constantly aware of our long-term vision”