Cinnamon Grand signs partnership with Quintessentially Lifestyle

Posted on
Travis Casather, Manager Food and Beverages – Cinnamon Grand receiving the ‘Quintessentially Recommended’ plaque from Niro Cooke, Director – Quintessentially Lifestyle

Cinnamon Grand’s London Grill and The Lagoon restaurants have been recognised by the lifestyle management and concierge service, Quintessentially Lifestyle, with an exclusive partnership that will ensure international exposure for the hotel and its outlets.

The worldwide publicity opportunities offered will include the two restaurants being featured on all Q Sri Lanka material, such as the Quintessentially mobile app, global website, on mailers, on the database and global newsletter.

Speaking on the occasion, Niro Cooke, Director – Quintessentially Lifestyle said,

“Quintessentially, after completing many successful reviews have awarded London Grill and The Lagoon the ‘Quintessentially Recommended’ plaque and status respectively, as a recognition of their excellence.”

Travis Casather, Manager Food and Beverages – Cinnamon Grand said that the hotel is proud to be part of Quintessentially Lifestyle. “They are known for the high quality restaurants and hotels they partner with. We are honoured to have been recognised by them.”