

Club Hotel Dolphin receives HolidayCheck 2013 Award

Club Hotel Dolphin has received the prestigious HolidayCheck Award 2013 for being one of 99 most popular hotels worldwide in the 'Family' category. A part of the Serendib Leisure Group, this is the second consecutive year that the hotel has won a 'HolidayCheck' award.

The HolidayCheck Award is awarded to the 99 most popular hotels worldwide and the winners were decided based on over 780,000 reviews received in 2012. The selection is based on three criteria: number of reviews, recommendation rate and Suns awarded in each category.

Ranil de Silva, Managing Director, Serendib Leisure, commenting on the accolade stated, "we are delighted to be awarded the HolidayCheck 2013 Award for a second consecutive year, and more importantly, to be awarded this accolade under the 'Family' category! Being chosen as a recipient of this award reaffirms the uniqueness of our property and our guests recognise us as one of the most sought after family-friendly hotels in the region."
