

Colombo Courtyard wins Luxury Business Award

Posted on

Arun K Thapar, Managing Director - Colombo Courtyard, Chris Oakes, General Manager - Indigo Pearl Resort and Abeer Thapar, Director - Colombo Courtyard

The World Luxury Hotel Awards which is the pinnacle of achievement for luxury hotels worldwide selected Sri Lanka's Colombo Courtyard for the global award 'Luxury Business Hotel - Country 2013'.

"The award is unique as it has to be voted in by tour operators, travel agents and hotel guests and then the final judges' selection process takes form due to the entrenched competitiveness of the category. This makes the award very special for Sri Lanka," expressed, Arun Thapar, Owner - Colombo Courtyard.

The urban business hotel perfectly captures the fusion of contemporary style with an essence of environmental design that makes it urban in nature.

“The timing is opportune given that many business delegates look for a private and quiet location for their business meetings,” Thapar said.