

Colombo Jewellery Stores hosts a Hublot Cricket evening

(L-R): Ranjan Madugalle; Rohit Sharma, Captain, Mumbai Indians IPL team; Mahela Jayawardena, team coach, Mumbai Indians; and Akram Cassim, CEO, CJS

Colombo Jewellery Stores hosted a meet-and-greet with Rohit Sharma, Captain, Mumbai Indian IPL team and Hublot's friend of the Brand at their store located at Alfred House Gardens, Colombo. During his visit to the boutique, Robin Sharma met Hublotistas and privileged guests including Sri Lankan cricketers Mahela Jayawardena, team coach of the Mumbai Indians, Ranjan Madugalle, Ranjit Fernando and Aravinda de Silva. To mark the event, Rohit Sharma presented a Hublot Big Bang Wall Clock to Akram Cassim, CEO, Colombo Jewellery Stores.

Akram Cassim being presented with a Hublot 'Big Bang Wall Clock' by Rohit Sharma, Hublot's Friend of the Brand

"Hublot has proven itself again as the first, unique and different luxury brand to enter cricket," commented Ricardo Guadalupe, CEO, Hublot. "This incredible sport will round off our worldwide marketing presence, and help drive our development in countries with high commercial potential. I am delighted with this collaboration that awaits us, and am very proud that the ICC has chosen Hublot as its partner."