Colombo Jewellery Stores (CJS) infused its heritage and history into the last kingdom of Sri Lanka, opening its newest store at the Kandy City Center Mall. Contemporary in look and feel, with a touch of the avant garde, this sixth branch within the CJS Store portfolio reflects a modernism that is unique to Kandy and very different from other CJS stores in Colombo.

The store prominently displays its unique jewellery collections, which include the newest Perpetual Grace collection as well as adding the world famous brands Tag

Hauer and Raymond Weil into its offerings.

“CJS is renowned for its unmatched beauty and elegance when it comes to jewellery and quality is unsurpassed,” said Thusitha Wijayasena, Chairman, Kandy City Center Mall. “The high-end calibre of this store will surely become an icon in Kandy because not only do we have history that emanates from the CJS story, but there is also glamour and exclusivity in what CJS offers customers here in Kandy,” he added.

“In Sri Lanka, Kandy has always been a seat of cultural heritage and is renowned for beautiful jewellery craftsmanship,” Akram Cassim, Chairman of CJS. He further added, “the fact that we can imbibe our legacy of craftsmanship into a city that is renowned for its arts and crafts is truly gratifying.”
