Curve Tapas bar presents band PROTEUS from Hong Kong

Posted on

Members of the band Proteus

Curve Tapas bar, brings top end band ‘Proteus’ from Hong Kong to perform from July 27th to August 21st every Wednesday and Saturday night. The group has garnered much acclaim for their music and will have Curve Bar come alive by performing popular hits from the 60’s till today’s current chart toppers, everything from Jazz, Latin, R & B and Pop.

The band is managed and led by Dylan Lye along with drummer Hassan Musafer. Adonis d Jesus is the keyboardist and fantastic musical composer who handle all the band’s musical arrangements. The lady with the golden vocals Umara Rifky (Sri Lankan) is the lead singer of the group having in a very short period made a name for herself in Hong Kong as well as won a number of international music awards.