

Discovering serenity at Laya hotels

At Laya Leisure

Over the years Laya Hotels has been winning the hearts of many holidaymakers with their picturesque hotels, outstanding service and amenities. As of today, the hotel chain manages four very intriguing vacation spots that are frequented by both Sri Lankans and non-Sri Lankans.

Laya Leisure

Set amidst charming tea estates and rubber plantations, Laya Leisure is an ideal getaway. Relax and unwind in this tropical paradise, which is a vision of loveliness with an outdoor swimming pool and panoramic views of nature.

It is located 116 km away from the Bandaranaike International Airport while popular destinations lie not too far away; Pahiyangala Rockcave Temple is 8km away; Sinharaja Rain Forest is 42km away. The hotel offers airport shuttle services upon request as well.

A few hours' drive from Colombo's city centre, Laya Leisure offers elegantly furnished guestrooms and free private parking facilities. The air-conditioned rooms at Laya Leisure are tastefully furnished with a separate living area and dining table. A flat-screen TV and work desk are also provided. The hotel also features separate apartment type units.

Guests can enjoy access to the children's playground and fitness centre. If you're an outdoorsy person or if you would like to head out for a change of scenery, the resort can also organise activities such as horse riding, archery, air rifle shooting and cycling. Other facilities at the Laya Leisure include a 24-hour reception, tour desk and dry-cleaning facilities as well as a bar.

Laya Safari

The outdoor pool at Laya Safari

Laya Safari is simply said, stunning. It is a perfect example of the coexistence between man and the wild—the resort is built in such a way that it enhances the greenery and the beach surrounding it. The resort is made of separate buildings which consist of large and airy guest rooms. Featuring large windows which offer ample natural light, beautifully decorated rooms at Laya Safari include, hardwood floors, a separate living area and a spacious private balcony.

At Laya Safari, guests can relax by the sparkling outdoor pool and enjoy a refreshing drink from the pool bar while catching the sunset. Further, they can make use of the games room and barbeque facilities as well as the luggage storage space, laundry services and a tour desk. Only 2km away from the Yala National Park, 25km from the Kataragama Temple and 200 metres from the beach, it is a great vacation spot for everyone.
