Elder Chiropractic Clinic, one of the leading chiropractic care providers in Sri Lanka marked its fourth anniversary. Also the clinic celebrated the 40th anniversary of its main clinic in Singapore. With its expertise the clinic continues to be a leader of evidence based and patient centered chiropractic musculoskeletal care provider in both locations.

The chiropractic clinic was relocated to a more spacious location along Lake Drive in Colombo to provide a better service. Dr Patrick L Milligan and Dr Sara Crespo Calvo are available full-time at the Elder Chiropractic Clinic while Dr Janet Ruth Sonsa, Group Director and Senior Chiropractor provides consultancy services once a week on a visiting basis.

“I have worked extremely hard to bring together a world class team to the country to create a place where true empathy for patients is combined with a positive atmosphere to support their wellbeing”, she stated.
