Euromoney recognises HNB as Best Bank in Sri Lanka

Posted on

Hatton National Bank (HNB) was recognised as the ‘Best Bank in Sri Lanka’ by the international Euromoney finance magazine for the second consecutive time at the Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2010.

Recognising HNB as the Best Bank in Sri Lanka, Euromoney stated that crucial to Sri Lanka’s economic future is a solid banking system, and no lender has proved itself more capable over the past year than Hatton National Bank.

Euromoney further stated that the bank posted pre-tax earnings of Rs 5.9 billion ($52 million) for the full year of 2009, up 24% year on year, on income of Rs 39.4 billion.

Commenting on the accolade Rajendra Theagarajah Managing Director/CEO of HNB stated that, “it is truly an honour to be adjudged the Best Bank in Sri Lanka by the prestigious Euromoney finance magazine for the second consecutive time. Our strong commitment towards delivering an unparalleled service to the customers, consistent growth recorded and continuous focus on enhancing shareholder value are the cornerstones of our great achievement.”