

Experience Sri Lanka's Wildlife at Elephant Reach, Yala

Posted on

Elephant Reach, Yala offers travellers an experience that is unmatched, coupled with an ideal locality. Elephant Reach is situated just minutes away from wildlife terrains of the country. Yala, Kumana, Udawalawe, Bundala and the holy city of Kataragama are all easily accessible from the hotel's set location.

Besides relaxing at the hotel venue, other excursions within the vicinity include Kumbukkan Oya, the region's cultural tradition of Chena cultivation and also a bullock cart ride to nearby villages.

While planning a holiday with your family, keep in mind that Elephant Reach's chalet rooms on full board basis is 15,000 rupees net, per night, for double occupancy and include free accommodation for two children below the age of twelve, with their meals at 2,500 rupees each.

This offer is available until October 31, 2013. Also on offer until November 30, 2013 on full board basis are double rooms at 13,000 rupees, when reserved for ten rooms or more.