A student receives the sponsorship from Rameez Mohamed, Manager – Marketing and Business Development, Fashion Bug

Fashion Bug sponsored the casual line of clothing for six students of Amal International School, who were placed second in a global competition titled “Think Quest International Competition 2011”. The team of students took wing to San Francisco, where at a special ceremony they were presented with their award for their entry called “End Child Labour”. Coached by Mohamed Fazlan, the students, Azeez, Umar, Jazeel, Fazal, Aakil and Rehman were placed second in the world in the Digital Media Event under 19 category.
