

Five Jetwing Hotels among TripAdvisor's Top 25 Sri Lankan Hotels

Five Jetwing Hotel properties have been included in the TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice 2013 Top 25 Hotels in Sri Lanka. Jetwing Lighthouse, a Geoffrey Bawa creation and a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World, is placed fourth; Jetwing Beach, another of Bawa's accomplishments and also a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World comes in at 12th place; followed by Jetwing Sea, formerly known as the Seashells Hotel and now a four-star rated hotel; the five-star Jetwing Blue, the first hotel in the Jetwing chain, relaunched in 2011; and the newest member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World - Jetwing Lagoon.

"We love it when a visitor comes to any of our properties and leaves with a smile, knowing that our service and our product is simple yet superior in every way. Through TripAdvisor, it's refreshing to hear about different experiences, and our guests also provide us with comments that help us improve.

My congratulations go out to all the other hotels who are on the Top 25 list, as it is through our efforts that Sri Lanka grows in stature as a premier tourist destination," said Hiran Cooray, Chairman of Jetwing.
