

Arun K Thapar, Managing Director - Colombo Courtyard exchanging the partnership agreement with Mohamed Fazeel, Head of Commercial Operations - SriLankan Airlines

FlySmiLes, the frequent flyer programme of SriLankan Airlines partnered with Colombo Courtyard, to offer its members a host of unique offers and benefits. With this partnership, FlySmiLes members will now have the opportunity to earn and redeem miles at the Colombo Courtyard, earning a FlySmiLes mile for every 100 rupees spent.

Commenting on the partnership, Arun K Thapar, Managing Director - Colombo Courtyard said, "We are happy to join hands with SriLankan Airlines' FlySmiLes and I hope the frequent flyers of the National Carrier will enjoy earning and redeeming miles for stays, Amber Spa treatments and the use of the restaurants and bars at the Colombo Courtyard."

Mohamed Fazeel, Head of Commercial Operations - SriLankan Airlines, said, "We are immensely pleased to partner Colombo Courtyard in our endeavour to provide more benefits to our rapidly expanding member base. With our entry to the oneworld alliance this year, SriLankan is geared to provide a wide range of benefits to our frequent flyers, such as the access to almost 1000 destinations in over 150 countries. Similarly, through our strategic partnerships with establishments like Colombo Courtyard, SriLankan will continue to offer value-added rewards to our frequent flyers."
