Four wins for Spa Ceylon at World Luxury Spa Awards 2018

Posted on

(L-R): Shalin Balasuriya, Co-founder and Director; Shiwantha Dias, Managing Director and Shenuka Fernando, Head of Spa Service Delivery, Spa Ceylon, at the awards gala in Belfast, Ireland

Spa Ceylon, the luxury Ayurveda chain, stamped its excellence in global presence after winning four major awards at the World Luxury Spa Awards 2018 annual gala held in Belfast, Ireland. Recognised for the fourth consecutive year, Spa Ceylon was awarded the international accolades for Best Luxury Ayurveda Spas, continent award for Best Luxury Ayurveda Spa, regional award for Best Luxury Urban Escape and Best Spa Manager. The World Luxury Spa Awards is the world's foremost platform for recognising excellence in the spa industry. The awards are based on the evaluation of global spa-goers and industry experts. Winners are considered the top tier of the global industry and are promoted by the World Luxury Spa Awards.

Commenting on the accolades, Shiwantha Dias, Managing Director, Spa Ceylon, stated,"We are truly honoured to be recognised yet again. With the continued growth of the global wellness market, Spa Ceylon has focused on providing innovative, high performance Ayurveda based wellness products and services in promoting everyday wellness".

(L-R): Shiwantha Dias, Managing Director; Shalin Balasuriya, Co-founder and Director with the award winning Spa Management team, Spa Ceylon

Shalin Balasuriya, Co-founder and Director, said, "The awards are a reflection of the commitment of our team to create exceptional multi-sensory experiences for our clientele. We are proud of our team who work tirelessly to ensure our clientele get the royal indulgence experience we promise at every Spa Ceylon outlet."