

Glimpses of Kumana

Posted on

Venturing into the wild terrain of Kumana that lies contiguous with Yala, led to chance encounters with wild elephants browsing the grasslands, spotted deer herds, black-necked hare and even sightings of the ever so elusive leopard. Fleeting moments and glimpses were captured in a blink of an eye, amidst much excitement!

Photographs Thanuja Thilakarathne

[nggallery id=568]