Glitz celebrated its 10 year anniversary in business with a new range of flip-flops.

According to Mohamed Shafeek, Operation Manager – Glitz, “for the past 10 years we have prided ourselves in offering our customers an extensive range of brands including that of our very own designers, alongside a range of exclusive and stylish products designed by internationally renowned fashion labels, at mainstream prices. Today, we are proud to be the fashion destination where you can find the hottest fashion trends in Sri Lanka.”

To mark the occasion, the newly unveiled flip-flops were presented to former cricketer and parliamentarian Sanath Jayasuriya in the presence of customers and the management. The new range of flip-flops is available in Glitz branches islandwide.
