Speaking at the opening, A M M Shafeek, Manager – Operations said, “for the past ten years we have prided ourselves in offering our customers an extensive range of brands alongside a range of exclusive and stylish products designed by internationally renowned fashion labels, at mainstream prices. In addition, we strongly believe that creating an attractive showroom with ample space to move around and having well trained staff is the best customer service a retail store such as ours could deliver. One of our strengths is that we always keep the customer in mind and decide what they want and we deliver.”
