

Grand Tea Lounge wins LUX Life award

Freshly brewed Ceylon tea being served at Tea Lounge

The Tea Lounge at the Grand Hotel in Nuwara Eliya, received the LUX Life award for its exquisite selection of Ceylon teas, English high tea and personalised service. The history of the Grand Hotel traces its roots back to the colonial times. Soon after Sir Edward Barnes choosing to build his holiday home in Nuwara Eliya, he always attempted to resemble his home country vibe amidst the hills of the island. The elegant 'Barnes Hall' built by Sir Edward Barnes later became the famed Grand Hotel in Nuwara Eliya.

At the Grand Hotel, premium blends like Earl Gray, English Breakfast and Irish Breakfast are served with the same finesse and style as they were a 150 years ago.

The elegant Tea Lounge at Grand Hotel

The Tea Lounge at the Grand Hotel sets the perfect ambience to enjoy the finest Ceylon tea with an array of freshly made delights. The world-renowned Sri Lankan tea brand, Dilmah is offered at the Tea Lounge.
