Harpo’s Cafes and Restaurants to offer catering menus for the festive season

Posted on
Range of Tapas

With the year coming to a close and the festive season round the corner, many a party is planned at homes to entertain family and friends. The Bayleaf, Park Street Mews, The Commons and Colombo Fort Café offer a range of menus to fit your mood and budget. From cocktail menus, to a selection of international buffet menus, Italian specials and exclusive Tapas and wine pairing menus, all are offered for corporate festive events, elegant home entertainment or year end reception and dinners. From the setting up of tables to folding napkins, Harpo’s cafes and Restaurants team offers a personalised service, quality food including the traditional festive fare and an excellent choice of menus. Following a tradition of hospitality which is evident in all that is presented, this will be an ideal solution to many who are planning events in the coming months.