Festive dishes from Harpo's cafes and restaurants

Harpo's cafes and restaurants unveils a new catering menu for The Bayleaf, Park Street Mews, Commons Coffee House and Colombo Fort Cafe just in time for the festive season.

The menu is a mix of traditional and local favourites making it easier than ever to entertain during the holidays. Festive cocktail menus and a selection of buffet menus are also available from The Bayleaf Restaurant and Park Street Mews Restaurant which includes Traditional Festive Fare, Asian, Far Eastern, International, Italian and BBQ themed menus. For those looking to go more traditional, a Sri Lankan roti cart from The Commons Coffee House is also available to add that special touch to any function planned for the season. A special selection of festive take-away menus are also on offer from Colombo Fort Café.

All menus are customisable and come along with an elegant presentation and professional service to ensure the experience is a memorable one.
