Heritance Ahungalla

Heritance Ahungalla, was awarded the Best 5-Star Resort in the island, at the Sri Lanka Tourism Awards this year, successfully taking over the baton from Heritance Kandalama, which won the coveted award for the last three consecutive years, securing the resort a position in the prestigious Hall of Fame last year. Heritance Tea Factory emerged winners in the Best 4-Star Resort category for a second year. The Best Host Hotel for Eco Tourism was awarded to Heritance Kandalama, reaffirming the Heritance Hotels and Resorts' commitment towards the environment wherever it operates.

"We are thrilled and honoured that our three Heritance properties have been recognised by the Sri Lanka Tourism Awards. This is a remarkable feat, which we are very proud of. Having all our properties recognised as the country's best will certainly invigorate our commitment of delivering exceptional experiences to our guests," said B H R Sariffodeen, Assistant Vice President of Aitken Spence Hotels.
