Hilton Colombo lunch buffet offer for Senior Citizens

Posted on

Hilton Colombo’s Spices restaurant offers senior citizens above 60 years a scrumptious lunch buffet on every Saturday for half the price. The respectful citizens are required to provide their National Identity Card at the entrance to avail this offer.

Hilton Colombo, in recognition of the service bestowed by senior citizens provides this dining experience at their international restaurant. Spices restaurant, provides flavours from around the world with a wide range of varieties starting from Sri Lankan, Chinese, Indian and Western.

“We are geared to provide an unforgettable dining experience for our senior citizens and it is recommended to make a prior reservation to avoid any disappointments,” said Gigi De Silva, Marketing Communications Manager – Hilton Colombo.