Holi at the Paradise Beach

Posted on

Holi at the Paradise Beach

Mount Lavinia Hotel Group together with COLIND (Colombo Indian Expat Community) celebrated Holi at the Paradise Beach for the second consecutive year.

MLH is devoted to surfacing the heritage and culture of many celebrations across the globe. This big festival in India marks the end of winter and the abundance of the upcoming spring harvest season, and it is very popular among all age groups.

Savio of Mount Lavinia Hotel states, “this event was a huge success! A lot of teenagers participated and the food was delicious as always. We hope the ones who missed out last time will definitely come next year.”