

Honeymoon in Paradise made affordable

Posted on

The Terrace Bar

With over five million web pages showing up on a Google search for the phrases “honeymoon packages for newlyweds,” it can be a daunting task to plan a honeymoon. Faced with such a vast range of options, how do you look for and identify the “Paradise” that will offer you a lifetime of memorable experiences?

Mount Lavinia Hotel has created a package that is affordable and memorable. The package which includes Bed and Breakfast, spa treatment for the couple, room service, a candle lit dinner and much more will be valid until December 20, 2013.

Other than the special package for honeymooners, Mount Lavinia Hotel also offers advice from a team of travel consultants who specialise exclusively on honeymoons.

Chinthaka Daluwatte, Group Director for Sales - Mount Lavinia Hotel says that without planning you may not be able to choose and prepare accordingly for your honeymoon. "We encourage couples wishing to book their honeymoons to speak to our team of specialists who can offer exclusive advice." He also added, "the honeymoon package we are introducing will have excellent value additions. This means you could end up getting a premier service at a throwaway price. If that is not a good deal, I don't know what is."

[nggallery id=605]