Hotel Rock Face

Tucked away in a rural setting with rubber plantations and paddy fields creating a green backdrop, Hotel Rock Face is just one and half hours drive away from

Colombo. This newly built holiday resort consists of separate cottages and a luxury bungalow. The resort is set in an actual rubber plantation bordering a wood that leads to the nearby mountain. In this setting guests at Hotel Rock Face can enjoy a quiet, peaceful holiday. Guests can enjoy the therapeutic powers of the hot spring waters in the natural pool at Hotel Rock Face during their stay. The resort include a BBQ area in the garden and ample parking facility as well as a banquet hall set in the rubber plantation and the rocky surface. Guests can borrow bicycles to explore the area.
