Spa Ceylon has been recognised for their exceptional innovation in Asia's Spa Industry and has been nominated for the AsiaSpa Crystal Awards 2012 under the category of "Natural Product Range of the Year". Yet another accolade that has been bestowed is the TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence for the year 2012.

This award from TripAdvisor, which has become the world's largest travel site by recognizing the power of traveler feedback, is a feather in the cap of Spa Ceylon. "We are proud to recognize Spa Ceylon for earning exceptional traveler ratings over the past year. With a rating of 4.5, Spa Ceylon has earned a place among the very best", said President, TripAdvisor for Business, Christine Petersen.

The AsiaSpa Crystal Awards are the spa industry's Oscars for the Asia Pacific region, with many international as well as Asian brands vying for honours at the gala awards ceremony held each year in Hong Kong. Spa Ceylon's award nomination was the first for a South Asian brand.

The nomination for the second year running as "Natural Product Range of The Year" recognizes Spa Ceylon's continued commitment to producing a range of the highest quality natural products to international standards.
