

A and A International Opticians moves to a new location

Posted on

A and A International Opticians, a supplier of spectacles, lenses and contact lenses shifted their office to Colpetty offering more convenience to the customers with ample parking space. A and A International Opticians is now situated between Rhineland Place and Sirikotha Lane, on the Marine Drive in Colpetty.

A and A opticians offers total vision care solutions. Branded frames, sunglasses and all internationally reputed brands of contact lenses are available with aftercare and warranty.

A and A International Opticians is owned by Ranee Ratnayeke, a senior Optometrist professionally qualified in the UK and practising in the country. She, like her father, Eric Rajapakse believes in providing a customised service to all the customers.