

Introducing the ‘Casa Colombo Collection’

Casa Colombo, the 12 suite designer boutique hotel in Colombo

The Casa Colombo Collection (CCC) was launched as the official parent brand for all properties and projects of Casa Colombo.

Lalin Jinasena – Owner, Designer and CEO stated, “Casa Colombo Collection is the next step for Casa Colombo, which will enable us to expand on the success, experience and the strong brand that we have gained with our first boutique hotel. And with that, this will take us to more properties in exciting destinations in Sri Lanka and around the world.

Unlike a chain, our collection will feature unique properties, all having their own individual style, ambience and appeal, while upholding the fundamental ethos of awe inspiring design, style, personalised service and delivering unique guest experiences.”

The Casa Colombo Collection is currently in the process of creating its next property in Sri Lanka.
