The Sushi Bar at Cinnamon Lakeside Colombo presents a Japanese cuisine offering a great variety of regional specialities from rice, seafood, noodle, soybean dishes and many more.

The Bar is for those curious about sushi and sashimi preparation. Diners can observe the highly skilled technique involved over the bar, often giving them an added appreciation for the food. Since sushi is often served raw, no cooking fat is introduced during its preparation. The result—an ideal dish for someone who wants to enjoy a quick, healthy and appetising meal.

Apart from the appetising platters of fresh sushi and sashimi, a variety of hot dishes from crispy tempura, yakitori, chicken teriyaki, donburi (bowls of steamed rice topped with either meat or vegetables) and traditional miso soup to noodles are also available on the menu.
